

FY2021 3rd QUARTER RESULTS

(1 April 2020 to 31 December 2020)

- Led by improving Automotive results, Q3 revenue returned close to previous year's level (-1%). Operating profit improved 52% year-on-year, supported by cost saving efforts, resulting in positive profit attributable to owners of the parent
 - Automotive: Improved revenue (+3%) and profit, reflecting global demand recovery
 - Architectural: Improved revenue (+7%) and profit in Europe, continued robust solar demand resulting in profit at last year's level
 - > Technical: Revenue and profit recovery to last year's level. Printer lens shipment increased with working from home demand
- Full-year forecast of revenue and operating profit revised upward again, based on improved results
- Business transformation including headcount reduction of more than 2000 in progress as planned to ensure meaningful net profit in FY2022

1. FY2021 Q3 Results

- Benefitted from demand recovery since Q2 and supported by urgent cost saving efforts, results improved further during Q3, although impacted by demand decline during Q1 due to the COVID-19 impact. Cumulative operating profit increased to JPY8 billion.
- Operating profit for Q3 (3 months) reached JPY 4.8 billion, recoding a JPY1.7 billion year-on-year improvement (+52%). Profit attributable to owners of the parent returned positive at JPY 3.4 billion, JPY4.1 billion higher than the previous year.
- A positive free cash flow generated for two consecutive quarters, with JPY5.6 billion in Q3, bolstered by recovering underlying profits and the Group-wide strict cash management to reduce capital expenditure and working capital, especially inventories. Stabler liquidity at the end of quarter, with JPY46.5 billion of cash and JPY 84.4 billion unused commitment lines, improving the levels at the end of September.
- Improvement in shareholders' equity ratio to 7.9% from 6.4% at the end of the second quarter, reflecting positive effects including profit attributable to owners of the parent and foreign exchange movements during Q3.

2. FY2021 Forecast

 Revenue and profit forecast revised upward again, reflecting Q3 results exceeding previous forecast as well as improving demand and cost saving efforts.

Revenue: JPY 490 billion, increasing by 10 billion from the previous forecast Operating loss after COVID-19-related exceptional items reduced to JPY (2) billion

- Trading conditions in Q4 expected to return to last year's level, while may be affected by possible demand decline by increasing COVID-19 infections.
- Full-year forecast below operating profit to be published when exceptional items confirmed. Asset disposals anticipated to mitigate the expected restructuring cost.
