Policy of Not Engaging in Cross-shareholdings

The Company and its material subsidiaries shall endeavor to achieve sustainable enhancement of corporate value and, in principle, not hold shares of other listed companies as cross-shareholdings unless such ownership becomes necessary for important corporate purposes such as business alliances.