Regarding Certain Media Reports

Nikkei Newspaper Online has reported today that Nippon Sheet Glass Co., Ltd. (the "Company") has been considering restructuring through the company's delisting, following the receipt of over 300 billion yen in support from Apollo and a consortium of banks. However, such information has not been officially announced by the Company.

The information is mostly true, and it is true that the Company is considering such proposal. However, no decision has been made at this moment.

The company plans to decide this matter at the board of directors' meeting tomorrow, and if any matters arise that should be disclosed, the Company will promptly disclose them.
