

“Policy on nil ownership of politically held listed shares”

The Company and its main material subsidiaries do not own politically held listed shares as a matter of principle, unless such ownership becomes necessary for the purpose of important corporate purposes such as for significant business alliance.